Discussion is held with the Court.

Based upon the matters presented,

THE COURT FINDS that Father is in contempt of Court for failure to comply with a valid support order of which Father had knowledge. Father failed to make support payments as previously ordered or some reasonable portion thereof, despite his ability to do so.

IT IS ORDERED that, in order to purge contempt, Father shall apply for 20 jobs a week until he is employed full time at a salaried position or positions. If Father becomes unemployed again at any time during the next 24 months, he shall again apply for 20 jobs a week until he is reemployed full time at a salaried position or positions. If Father is unable to make the payments this Court has ordered for any month during the next 24 months because he works less than 40 hours a week, he shall apply for 1 job for every 2 hours he works less than a 40 hour week until he is employed 40 hours a week at a salaried position or positions. In other words, if Father works 38 hours in a week, he shall apply for 1 job that week. If he works 30 hours in a week, he shall apply for 5 jobs that week.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Father shall keep a record of his job applications (hereafter referred to as the "Record") and shall mail a copy of that Record to the Attorney General and Petitioner within 15 days of today's date.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the Record shall be kept in chronological order. Father shall enter the information this Court requires into the Record within 15 minutes of leaving each job application. The Record shall include the following information in the following order:

1. The date of the application
2. The time of the application
3. The name of the business to which the application is made
4. The telephone number of the business to which the application is made
5. The name of the person to whom the application is made. If Father does not know the name of the person, he shall provide a complete description of the person, including a description of the clothes the person was wearing at the time of the application.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED setting a Review Hearing on December 18, 2006 at 11:30 a.m. before this Division to review Respondent/Father's Record and employment status. The parties are to check in prior to the time of hearing at the following location:
